Re: In re Intuniv Antitrust Litigation, No. 1:16-cv-12396

Dear Judge Burroughs:

Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs (“IPPs”) respectfully submit this letter requesting a brief continuance of the Settlement Conference and Status Conference currently set for July 15, 2021. Since reaching the settlement in principle with defendants Shire LLC, and Shire U.S., Inc. (“Shire”) on June 10, 2021, Shire and IPPs have negotiated the specific terms of the Settlement Agreement and expect to finalize and sign the Settlement Agreement next week.

The parties to the IPP litigation, including defendants Actavis Elizabeth LLC and Actavis Holdco US, Inc. (“Actavis”), are now working with the class notice vendor to prepare forms of notice to present to the Court in connection with IPPs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of a global settlement between IPPs, Actavis and Shire and require additional time in which to finalize the proposed notice package and the supporting memorandum to be filed with the Court.

The Parties expect to complete this process by the end of July and request that a Preliminary Approval Hearing be set in August. Counsel can be available August 5, and August 11-13, or dates thereafter convenient to the Court. The Parties also remain available on July 15, 2021 for a status conference and to select a date for the preliminary approval hearing should the Court deem that necessary.

Sincerely,

KANNER & WHITELEY, L.L.C.
